

Gordon Fornell

4141 Colonel Glenn Hwy., Suite 252
Dayton, OH 45431
(O) 937.426.4300
(C) 850.897.0663
gbfornell@earthlink.net

Served in senior acquisition leadership positions in Air Force Systems Command and Air Force Materiel Command. Commanded both Armament Division at Eglin AFB, FL and Electronic Systems Center at Hanscom AFB, MA. Served as Senior Military Assistant to two Secretaries of Defense, Casper W. Weinberger and Frank C. Carlucci. Responsible for aircraft, engine, C3I, electronic combat, and ICBM programs at the Air Force headquarters level. Program director for the KC-10. Served as test pilot on various programs at Edwards AFB, CA and Wright Patterson AFB, OH. Retired as Lt. General, USAF.

Principal Areas of Expertise

Acquisition Management

Lead two major product centers in Air Force. Total management responsibilities for conventional munitions and C3I programs.

Program Management

Program director for KC-10 Program with total life cycle responsibilities.

Test Management

Led test programs on wide variety of aircraft programs at Edwards AFB and Wright Patterson AFB.

Dayton Aerospace, Inc.

Position

Associate

Education

BS, Mechanical Engineering
Michigan State University
MBA, Transportation & Public Policy
Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania
Air War College
USAF test Pilot School
Squadron Officer's School
Harvard International Security Course
DoD Level III Certified
Program Management
Theory of Constraints
Jonah Course

Key Positions

Commander , Electronic Systems Center
Hanscom AFB, MA

Commander, Armament Division
Eglin AFB, FL

Senior Military Assistant to Secretary of Defense
Pentagon

Special Assistant for ICBM Modernization
USAF Headquarters

Program Director, KC-10 Program
Wright Patterson AFB, OH

Deputy Director of Development and Production
USAF Headquarters